A woman with blonde hair is seen from the side, sitting in a control room or office. She is looking at a computer monitor. The image has a blue tint. Large, stylized numbers (1, 2, 1, 2) are overlaid on the image, along with a large 'X' mark. The text 'Technical Trouble?' is at the bottom.

Technical Trouble?

No getting around it: Computers impact productivity.

For some, it's the agony of downtime. For others, the ecstasy of a competitive edge.
